

Text String Options

To enter a text string click on the T on the top toolbar.
Click on your label to drop the text string in place.
Double click to edit.

Under the Data Source tab the various types of text string options can be selected.

Further options are available by clicking the “More Options” button, this includes prompts and serialization.